THE NATURAL WINE KING OF ALTO SWABIA

Jochen beurer is one of our favorite natural winemakers and is considered the guiding light of alto swabia (which, by the way, is not the real name for this part of germany. Importer vom boden made the term up a couple months ago and we like it, so despite no consent from the people who actually live there, we will henceforth only refer to this region by it's fantasy name...and jochen beurer as their fantasy wine king.) Besides, wurttemberg, the real name of the region, is unmemorable, and these wines, although many things, are definitely not unmemorable. (please don't reread that last sentence)

GERMAN RIESLING WITH 5 YEARS OF AGE (aka checking in on the 2014ers)

"2014 was made in the vineyard." – egon muller

We think most german dry rieslings start to hit their sweet spot at about 5 years. 2014 was a notoriously difficult vintage, but we saved/collected some of our favorites from that year. Super limited quantities on all of these, so treat yourself :)
